The General Society
Sons of the Revolution
Blue Book

The Blue Book contains the standard operating procedures for the General Society. It is a general guide for understanding the structure, procedures and forms of the Society. Changes to the Blue Book will be made as needed.

There are five sections. Two are for the State Society to develop with regard to its own structure, procedures and forms; two reference General Society structure, procedure and forms; and section five is for meetings.