TRIENNIAL STANDING RULES
GENERAL SOCIETY SONS OF THE REVOLUTION

Each State Society must register its official delegates with the General Secretary in writing in order to be entitled to have its votes recorded officially.

The privileges of the floor, are, nonetheless, accorded to all members of the Sons present.

All reports should be submitted in writing to the General Secretary and oral synopsis thereof limited to two (2) minutes.

No member of the Sons shall speak more than once on the same subject nor longer than two (2) minutes at one time until all who wish to speak have had the opportunity to speak.

All resolutions to be considered for adoption by the Society must have been submitted at least two (2) months prior to the meeting or recommended by the Resolutions Committee unless voted to be considered by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members of the Society present.

Upon recognition by the chair, a speaker should state his name and official position in the General Society and, if appropriate, whether he is an official State Society delegate entitled to cast a vote for his Society. Speakers are requested to mind their REAL BP's, i.e., their remarks should be Relevant, Entertaining, Articulate, Limited, Brief and Pertinent.

All Parliamentary procedures will be based upon Robert's Rules of Order (current edition).
