GENERAL SOCIETY
SONS OF THE REVOLUTION

Regulations for Organization of State Societies

I. Organization meeting with ten persons qualified for membership.
II. Ask General Society for recognition as a State Society.
III. Recognition by the General Society at a Triennial Meeting or Board of Managers Meeting, or by the Committee for New Societies
IV. The Constitution of the General Society becomes the Constitution of the new State Society. Draw up By-Laws patterned on By-Laws of one of the existing State Societies.
V. It is strongly recommended that each new State Society be promptly incorporated in its own state as "Sons of the Revolution in the State of……..."

Initial Procedure A

1. Prospects apply for membership in an existing State Society.
2. Applicants duly elected to membership in that Society.
3. Request forwarded to General Secretary with information that all applicants, ten at least, are members of the……..Society and desire to form a new State Society.
4. Approval by the General Society at a Triennial Meeting or Board of Managers' Meeting or by the Committee on New Societies. Payment of dues and remitting to General Treasurer, dues for the year.

Initial Procedure B

1. Committee on New Societies furnishes applicants with membership blanks in the new Society to be formed.
2. Applications completed and passed on by this Committee and General Secretary.
3. Request made by ten qualified applicants for forming a new State Society.
4. Approval by General Society at a Triennial Meeting or Board of Managers' Meeting or by Committee on New Members.
   Payment of dues for the year and remitting per capita dues to General Treasurer.